

Volunteer of the Month ☆☆☆

Lily Rabinovitch was born in Zimbabwe and grew up in South Africa. She immigrated to Canada in 1999. Lily has her Bachelor of Management degree from the University of Lethbridge. In her free time she enjoys traveling, theatre, new cuisines and salsa dancing.

When Lily first came to Canada, she faced many challenges. She feels fortunate now to be able to help other newcomers. Lily has volunteered as a facilitator for CIWA's New Friends and Neighbourhood Groups (NFNG) program since February 2009. NFNG provides immigrant women in Calgary with a place to voice their concerns, obtain community support and make new friends. Lily spends countless hours every month helping these women. She is always punctual, professional, committed, conscientious and caring. It is because of this dedication to her groups and her excitement to help immigrant women in Calgary that we have chosen her as the Volunteer of the Month for October 2009.
